Public Transport

The HHH is located near Utrecht Central Station (walking distance).

Indoor walking route (10 minutes)

Walk towards Hoog Catharijne from Utrecht CS. Turn left after checking-out. Turn right and enter Hoog Catharijne. After approximately 50 meters you see the store of the Lush and Van Haren on your right. This area is called: the Godebaldkwartier. Follow the corridor. At the end you will see supermarket Albert Heijn. At this point you see a revolving door, leave the building and take the escalator down. If you are outside you see diagonally right in front of you the building HGB 1 (see photo).

Outdoor walking route (about 10 minutes)

By car

From Den Bosch, Rotterdam, The Hague and Arnhem drive through junction Oudenrijn in Amsterdam direction. Take the exit Centre (8). Follow the signs and 'center' and 'P1 – Hoog Catharijne'.

From the parking garage you take the elevator to the store level Hoog Catharijne. Leave the building next to the HEMA store through the revolving door and take the escalator down. If you are outside you see diagonally right in front of you the building HGB 1 (see photo).

Address garage:

Garage Hoog Catharijne (P1)
